Dear Parents,

Welcome back, Eli!

It has been wonderful seeing Eli this week now he is on the mend! Here is a message from Eli's mum:
Many of you will know that Eli (Y2 Poppy class), big brother to Marni (YR Buttercups) has been very unwell in hospital over the last few weeks. I am thankful that he is now home, making a good recovery and will be starting a phased return to school soon. However, I wanted to take the opportunity to thank everyone at the school (teachers and staff, parents and children) for their kindness, support and generosity during what has been a very difficult time. As a family we have been overwhelmed by the kindness extended to us all. Thank you; we really have appreciated it! Rebecca (mum to Eli and Marni)

Handball Champions 2017

Well done to our Year 6 handball team who have just returned from Warden Park as champions of the NEARS Handball Tournament 2017. The team played superbly and represented Twineham impeccably. Thank you to Mrs Reeves, Mrs Stafford and Mrs Bohlen for wonderful help and support.

Well done Saoirse, Harry, Amelie, Darcy, Zach T, James and Aaron! Outstanding!

Chartwells Christmas Lunch

Our Christmas lunch will take place on Friday 18th December. Children are invited to wear Christmas jumpers on this day. Please remember to book lunches in advance - more details soon.

FOTS Christmas Fair

Please see our poster attached for what promises to be a fabulous event this Friday.

Decorations Day

We are greatly looking forward to spending this Friday making Christmas decorations in school. Thank you to parents who have volunteered to help; if you would still like to offer help then please let your child's Class Teacher know.

Missing goggles

Please keep a look out for these vintage motorcycle goggles that were last seen on Friday afternoon and are currently lost. Please let us know if you see them.
